"Terms" – means these terms of business of the training provider

The Contract

These Terms constitute the contract between the Training Provider and the Learner/Student for the supply of qualifications and training by the Training Provider to the Learner/Student and are deemed to be accepted by the Learner/Student by virtue of its request for such services.

These Terms contain the entire agreement between the parties and unless otherwise agreed in writing by a director/partner/proprietor of the Training Provider, these Terms prevail over any terms of business or purchase conditions (or similar). No variation or alteration to these Terms shall be valid unless the details of such variation are agreed between a director/partner/proprietor of the Training Provider and the Learner/Student and are set out in writing and a copy of the varied terms is given to the Learner/Student stating the date on or after which such varied Terms shall apply.

Purchase Obligations

To enable the Training Provider to comply with its obligations under the Conduct Regulations the Learner/Student undertakes to provide to the Training Provider details of the course which the Learner/Student seeks to receive, including the following if applicable:

- The full name of the qualification required
- Completed application form and ID
- The learner/student must ensure they meet the required educational standards for the requested qualification. The Training Provider will not be held responsible for incorrect or false information leading to the Learner/Student not able to complete the course for ability issues.
- The Learner/Student/Business will ensure that any payment plan agreed to on application is maintained in accordance with the monthly invoice payments due. The Training Provider reserves the right to charge interest at 3% on any outstanding payments more than 30 days passed any invoice due date.
